Numb. 8153.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 11. to Tuesday September 14. 1742.

Charles Town, South Carolina, July 7.

BY an Expreſs from General Oglethorpe we have Advice, That on Monday the 5th Inſtant, a Spaniſh Fleet of thirty two Sail, conſiſting in three Ships of twenty Guns, two large Snows, three large Scooners, four Sloops, the reſt half Galleys, after having hovered about the Bar for ſeven Days, and having then a ſtrong Eaſterly Wind, came into Jekyl Sound, and that having ſtood the Fire of 150 Shots from the 18 Pounders at St. Simon's Fort, and from the Ships and Veſſels that lay under that Fort, they paſſed through the Sound without once attempting to board any of our Veſſels, but firing very ſmartly, proceeded up the River out of Reach of the Guns, a little below Gaſcoigne's, where they landed their Forces, to the Number of near three thouſand Men, at the ſame time hoiſting a Red Flag at the Mizen-top-maſt-head of one of the largeſt Ships. Whereupon the General having done all he could to annoy the Enemy as they landed, and having nailed up the Guns, burſt the Bombs and the Cohorns, &c. was at laſt obliged to retire with his Troops from the Camp at St. Simon's to Friderica, ſeven Miles up the River.

By the Advice of his Majeſty's Council here, Notice of what is above has been ſent to the Governors and Commanders of his Majeſty's Ships of War in the neighbouring Colonies, deſiring their Aſſiſtance; and Letters have been alſo ſent to General Wentworth, Governor Trelawny of Jamaica, and Admiral Vernon, on the ſame Subject.

The Flamborough Man of War of twenty Guns, and a Row-Galley belonging to this Government, with two of his Majeſty's Sloops of War, the Swift and Hawk, are already diſpatched from hence to the Aſſiſtance of Georgia; and in a Day or two his Majeſty's Ship the Rye, of twenty Guns, together with another Row-Galley, will ſail to its Relief.

July 14. Another Expreſs is juſt arrived, which brings Advice, that the General and all his People were well on the 7th Inſtant at Noon; that he has taken five Spaniards Priſoners, and is in no Fear of the Enemy. By the Priſoners he learnt, that the Governor of Auguſtine is himſelf in Perſon commanding the Expedition with 3000 Men, and that he expects a Reinforcement of 16 Sail of Veſſels more, with Men, &c. and that they have brought with them 20 or 30 eighteen Pounders, which they are now mounting on a Battery between Captain Gaſcoigne's Plantation and St. Simon's.

July 17. The General continues at Frederica, where he is determined to defend himſelf to the utmoſt; and in Skirmiſhes has already kill'd upwards of 100 of the Enemy, and taken 16 Priſoners, one of them a Captain; and that two more Captains were amongſt the Slain. Our four Men of War are gone, with ſeveral other Ships, &c. to his Aſſiſtance; and, we are in great Hopes, we ſhall ſoon have a good Account of them: We have been under Arms, in a general Alarm, 13 Days; are fortifying the Town; and Trenches will be thrown up from Cooper to Aſhley River.

Moſcow, Aug. 6. Laſt Night her Czariſh Majeſty returned from her Pilgrimage to her Summer Palace in this City, and this Day, being the Feſtival of the Transfiguration, ſeveral Proceſſions are made by the Prieſts and Monks, who perform the Ceremony of Bleſſing the Fruits of the Earth. And it being likewiſe the Anniverſary of the Erection of the Firſt Regiment of the Guards, Preberofinsky, her Czariſh Majeſty dines in Publick with all the Officers of that Regiment.

Moſcow, Auguſt 12. Yeſterday the Perſian Ambaſſador, Muchamed Huſſein Chan, marched out of Town, with all his Retinue, to his Camp on the other ſide of the River Moſco. The Streets through which he paſſed were lined with Ruſſian Soldiers. Several Troops of the Guards preceeded him, marching, according to ancient Cuſtom, with Sound of Trumpet and Beat of Drum. A Maſter of the Ceremonies, and a Ruſſian General, attended the Ambaſſador to his Camp, where they took Leave of him; and from whence he will proceed on his Journey to Perſia.

Stockholm, Aug. 27, O. S. Since the Houſe of Nobles having choſen M. Ungern for their Marſhal, the other three States have choſe their Speakers, who are the ſame they had had the laſt Diet, that is, Biſhop Benzelius for the Clergy, Audeville for the Burghers, and Okerſon for the Peaſants. On Wedneſday laſt the Diet went to Church: After Divine Service was over, Count Gyllenborg made a Speech to them, in the King's Name, and the Marſhal and Speakers of the ſeveral Eſtates made their Harangues to the